

per cent on Friday (January 12), marking its best performance in a day since July 2020, followed by another 1.9 per cent rally on Monday. With this, the index, which tracks the share prices of India's 10 biggest information technology (IT) services companies, has increased 7.1 per cent in the past two sessions.

formance. The numbers indicate a long-term decline in the revenue growth and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortisation (Ebitda) margins of the big four, in contrast with a steady rise in their price-to-earnings (P/E) multiple in were down 2.1 per cent Y-o-Y. For comparison, the combined quarterly net profit of the big four has declined on a year-on-year basis only three times since Tata Consultancy Services' (TCS') initial public offering and listing on the bourses in 2005.

are p Sis
nies'
just mark since their just :

Director Skill Development launches PM Vishwakarma Scheme

SREE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU, Jan 23: A significant step was taken by the J&K UT administration by becoming the first UT in the country to implement the PM Vishwakarma Yojna (PMVY). In continuation to its efforts the Director of Skill Development Sudershan Kumar today inaugurated the first batch of 30 trainees from a target of 90 of tailoring craft being imparted training at Govt ITI R S Pura. Subsequently Director laid emphasis on their commitment to impart quality skill to the youth. While addressing the trainees Sudershan Kumar said that the scheme will be highly beneficial as it will empower the artisans to earn their livelihood in addition to their immense contribution towards the economy of the nation.

He said that this scheme aims to make small entrepreneurs stronger who run small enterprises and business units.

Director further said that avenues for the youth. He said that the aim of this scheme is to recognise artisans and crafts persons through certificate and ID card in addition to provide them a basic training for 5 to 7 days with a stipend of Rs. 500 per day. "The scheme will also provide modern toolkit of Rs 15000 free of cost to trained artisan besides their linkage with credit based soft loans and marketing support for expansion of their business."

Director said, GM Bhatt

GDC Udhampur Girl Child Day with

"Save a girl child"

SREE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU, Jan 23: The NSS collaboration with Women under the Patronage of Worthy Kumar Gupta celebrated National Girl Child Day to commemorate the rights of Girl Child.

The motif behind celebration is about the challenges faced by girls in terms of rights and empowerment.

This Day was established to address the injustice that a girl child faces in society.

The programme started at 10 AM where Worthy Principal sir addressed the gathering. Prof. B.L.Thakur, Prof. Shobana Samant, secretary Dr. Jagjeet Singh, and NSS members performed a song.

NSS POs Dr. Gurpreet Kaur and Dr. Anshu Kaur welcomed the guests and briefed about the programme.

While addressing the gathering, Worthy members of the NSS said we need to be gentle, so educated girls can be compassionate, and if they are disciplined they can be free.

The celebration continued with Poster Making, Slogan Writing, and a parallelly under the Supervision of the College Committees of the College. A symposium, 8 in poster making. Among these Sonali Dogra and Rupali of sem 6th were the winners. In poster making